BRUSSELS, Jan. 16 -The first letter written by Henry M. Stanley since he left | Lipedrazza, aged 77, a well-known fresco the coast of Africa was received by post painter, committed suicide by hanging, tolast night. It is dated at Boma, Bonalya day. He has been troubled with a spinal Maretia Aug. 17, and is addressed to the disease. Benzango left $12,000 to two sis-Muretia, Aug. 17, and is addressed to the disease. Arab sheik, Tippoo Tib, whom Stanley ters in Italy. left in charge of affairs while he pushed forward to Emin Pasha's relief. The letter is plentifully besprinkled with salaams, salutations and professions of having a good heart and other Oriental terms Yet "would never be quiet," was undoubtspeech. Aside from these edly troubled with chronic indigestion Her victuals, like those or many other elthe letter contains the following information: Stanley was in good health derly persons whose digestive powers have derly persons whose digestive powers have become impaired, didn't agree with her. This was before the era of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, or some one of her numerous friends and relatives would undoubtedly have persuaded her to try the great specific for dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness. This would have been a measure of self-protection on their part, for she would soon have been cured and ceased to disturb them with her clamor. The most obstinate cases of indigestion, with its with a party composed of 130 Wangwanas, with a party composed of 150 wangwanas, three soldiers and sixty-six of Emin's natives. He left Emin eighty-two days before on the Nyanza, making the trip with the loss of only three men—two drowned and one deserted. He found the white men looking for Emin quite well and another white man, Casati, also well. Emin was bountifully supplied with cattle. other white man, Casau, also well. Emin was bountifully supplied with cattle, sheep, goats and food of all kinds. He was very liberal and gave Stanley's men many presents. Many of Emin's soldiers were ready to follow Stanley, but he told them to remain till he returned for them. At Yambungana Stanley left all his white men behind except his servant William. Stanley asks Tippoo Tib what he is going to do, and suggests he would like to have him go with him, if agreeable, as they had both been over the road twice and know the route well. Stanley says he will wait ten days for him, then move forward slowly, going to the big island next. This letter was taken to Stanley Falls by a messenger who also conveyed a number of other letters to Stanley Falls, which are expected in two or three-months.
